REGISTER W. M. U.

The Register W. M. U. met last Wednesday, January 24th, at the home of Mrs. J. L. Johnson. There were about twenty ladies present with visitors. We had Mrs. Lon L. Day, of Brooklet, and two visitors from Claxton. Theme for the year, "Prayer in Progress of Christianity." Topic for the month, "The Beginning of the Missionary Enterprise." Mrs. H. H. Offitt led the devotional after which prayer was offered by Mrs. Jim Williams. A splendid talk was given by Mrs. Day on Christianity. Several other talks were given also.

We had a business session and had a discussion about the officers which will be held until September there. The new plan for lunch is being inaugurated. Those attending will bring their lunches. The Statesboro Methodist church will act as host and furnish hot coffee for the visitors. It is expected that the members of the local church will bring their lunches, get the inspiration from the program and at the noon hour enjoy the fellowship with the visitors. The public is cordially invited.
